National Domestic Communications Assistance Center (NDCAC)

Upcoming Presentation

Gathering Evidence from Today's Communication Technologies

This four-hour virtual course introduces participants to the National Domestic Communications Assistance Center and the investigative resources it provides, offering an overview of the NDCAC, a guided tour of the NDCAC Law Enforcement Portal, and demonstrations of several key tools. The training concludes with a fictional case study that illustrates how NDCAC tools and resources can be integrated successfully to support and solve an investigation.

January 27, 2027
8:00 a.m. – noon MST

Virtual

POC: Walter O'Neal
NDCAC-Training@fbi.gov

Course Objectives

- Overview of the NDCAC's mission, goals and core responsibilities.
- Highlight tools used for open-source research, IP address attribution, extracting EXIF data, and making sense of complicated social media returns.
- Illustrate how NDCAC tools and resources can be successfully integrated into an investigation.

Scan QR Code to Register

Questions? Contact the Technical Resource Group (TRG) at AskNDCAC@fbi.gov or (855) 306-3222